The Queenslander Pictorial.

Raid Shock children returning to school in London.
Newspaper Illustration photo

NATIONAL PARK

R Higgins, photo

Beautiful Tree Fern
Mr Cyril White Government Botanist in the foreground

Antarctic Beech Tree
These trees are of immense size and great antiquity

Tree Ferns

Giant Scrub Box Tree, about 45 feet in circumference

Waterfalls at the head of Canungra Creek

The Upper Fall, Canungra Creek

Group of Antarctic Beech Trees growing from the one stem

Toowoomba Returned Soldiers Gala Day.

Photos by C. W. Callaghan.

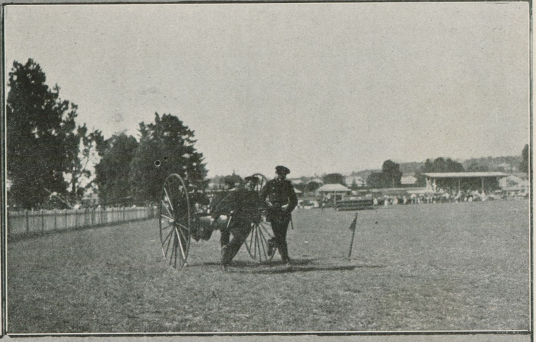
Mounted Police Patrol.

Head of the Procession

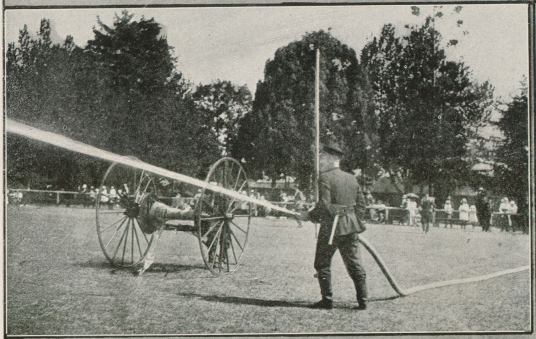
General Hospital Nurses display — 1st Prize

Motor Bicyclists

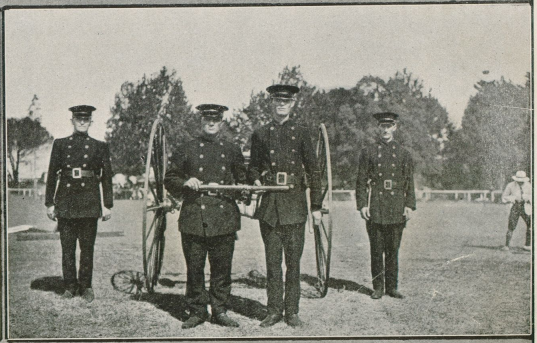
Toowoomba Volunteer Fire Brigade



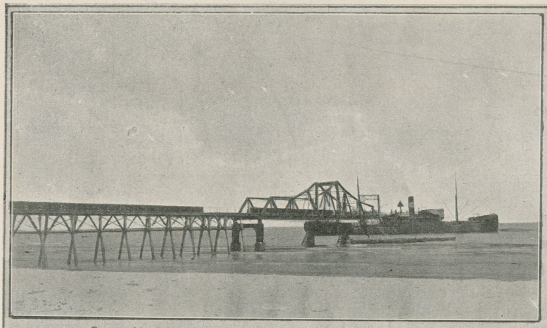
Firemen in Alarm Race



Warwick Squad in action



Toowoomba Squad, winners of Challenge Cup.



Cantilever jetty for loading phosphates.

Group of Marys

NAURU.

(See Sketcher)

RICHEST ISLAND IN THE WORLD.

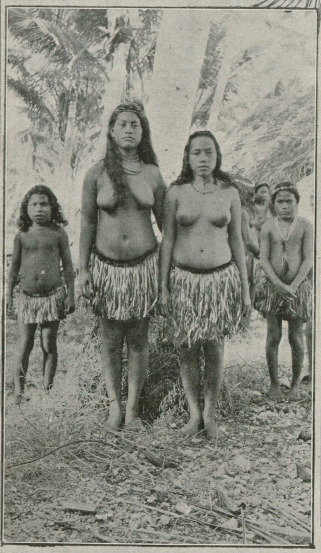
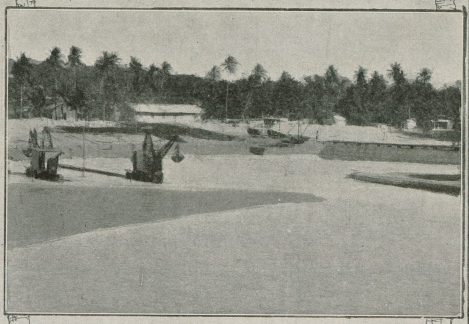
The boat harbour dynamited in the reef.



Some native women.



Dredging a boat harbour

A Nauruan belle.

Fish for a feast

A Gilbert islander and his tame noddies.

LAST ACTS OF THE WAR.

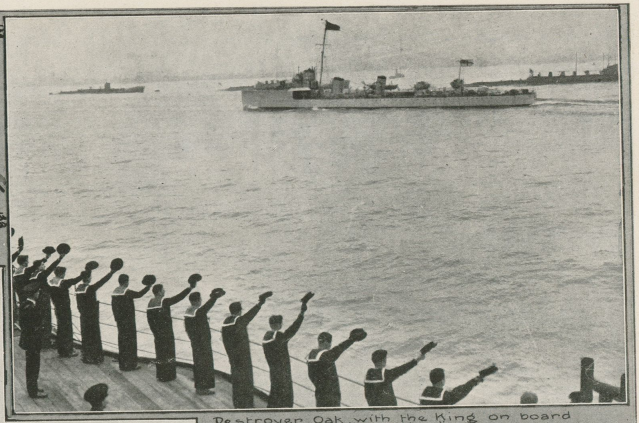
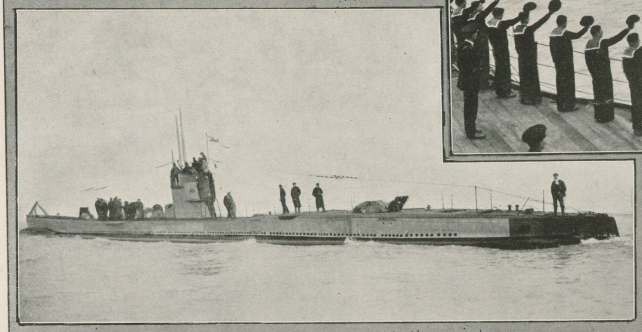
Central News, photo



Destroyer Oak with the King on board passing down the lines



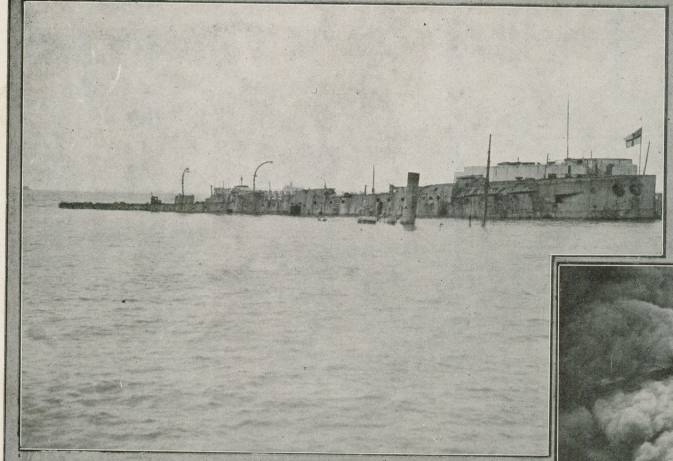
A Super-Submarine at Harwich.

Admiral Tyrwhitt who took the surrender of the boats on his flagship Curacoa.

Three surrendered U boats with German crews on board

Canadians marching through Mons, November 11, 1918.

British Naval Officers looking at surrendered U boats



"The "Vindictive" lying on the entrance to the Harbour of Ostend. The Germans have moved her from her original position.

ON VARIOUS

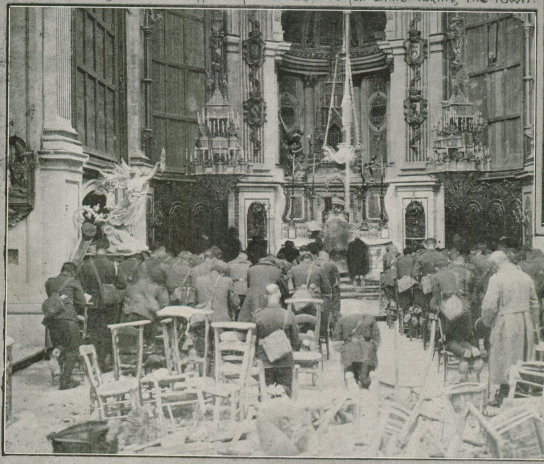
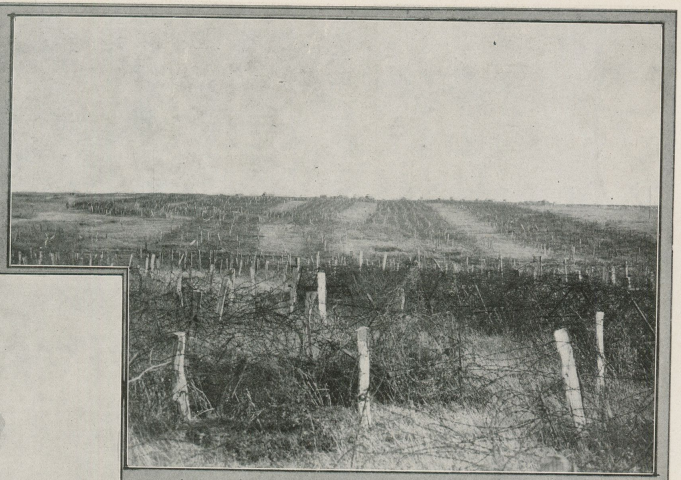
On Sunday October 13th 1918, the Abbe Thuilliez of Cambrai who stayed with a sick woman although threatened to be shot if he did so, held a thanksgiving service in the Cambrai Cathedral for the deliverance of the town. Also prayers were offered for those who fell while taking the town.



One of the many fires started by the enemy before he was driven from Valenceinnes

Central News, photo



A portion of the Hindenburg line now miles behind the front. A huge mass of barbed wire.

FRONTS.

Arctic clothing and equipment issued for the use of British troops located in North Russia. Mobile soldier on sentry.

HOLIDAY AT SANDGATE

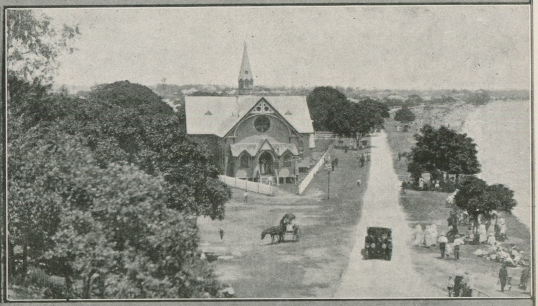
The Jetty.

View from the Jetty.

Soldiers Repatriation Café



The Lower Esplanade

Kiddies having a good time

The cow nuisance—eating the contents of picnic parties hampers.

Enjoying a dip

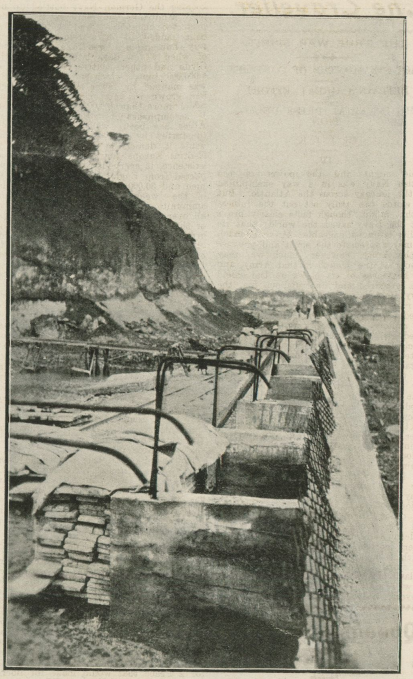
On the Beach

C.E.S. Fryer, photo.

LIEUT. JULES L. TARDENT AND CORPORAL EMIL A. TARDENT.

CAPTAIN E. G. E. DONALDSON.
—See page 23.

NEW CONCRETE EMBANKMENT AT REDCLIFFE.



EMBANKMENT IN COURSE OF CONSTRUCTION.
—Photos. by Thiel.

PALESTINE TO QUEENSLAND.

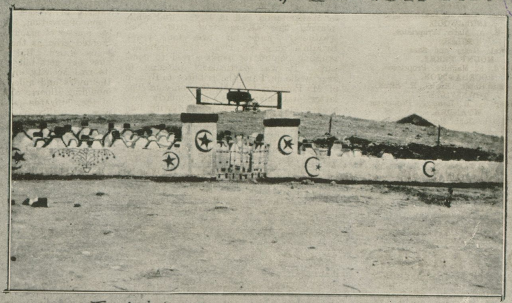
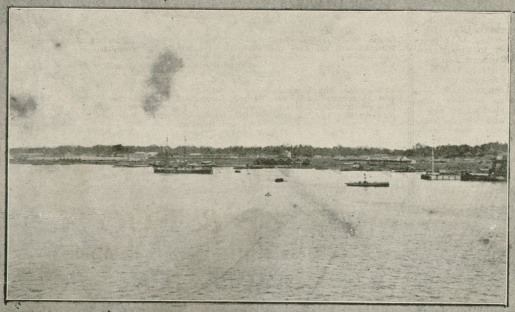
Turkish prisoners at Arsue



Turkish Cemetery at Miskie



A call at Colombo.

Troops on the Port Darwin, waiting to be fumigated at Melbourne.